

Auxiliary Wins Two Citations

Harbor View Ladies Auxiliary 217, Fleet Reserve Assn. won two second places in competitions at the 34th Annual National Convention held in New York City in September. The citations were won by their press book and their welfare work.

The awards were brought to the auxiliary by Mrs. V. Miekley, convention delegate. Mrs. Miekley reported on the convention agenda and listed the new national officers.

Highlight of the convention was the attendance of Mrs. Vistrorenia Hoffman, delegate from the Philippines who traveled 10,000 miles to the national conference. Mrs. Hoffman is vice president of the 82 units which make up her region in the Philippines.

Shoe Design Contest For High School Girls

Southland high school girls with a flair for sketching have a chance to design their own shoes and have them made by a nationally known company in a unique contest announced by the Broadway Department Stores.

All that is necessary is for any high school girl to complete a shoe sketch in the Broadway's Sbicca Shoe Designer contest. Any type vamp, square, round or high throat, flat or little heel may be used. Entry blanks may be picked up in the Causal Shoe Department of the Broadway Del Amo, and contest entries must be mailed before midnight, Oct. 28. Neatness and originality will mark the judging.

Three grand prizes are being offered. They include: first prize, a six-pair wardrobe of Sbicca shoes, plus a complete outfit; second prize, a four-pair wardrobe of Sbicca shoes, plus a sweater and skirt; third prize, a two-pair wardrobe of Sbicca shoes, plus a sweater. Each grand prize winner's shoes will be made by Sbicca and named for her.

Ten prizes, including a three-pair wardrobe of Sbicca shoes, will be awarded winners in the Broadway Del Amo.

CDA Court Sees Film On Defense

Mrs. Wesley Muzik, Grand Regent of Court Our Lady of Victory No. 1344, announced the showing of the Civil Defense film, "Home Preparedness" as well as a talk and question and answer period conducted by Mr. Rocheford, head of the civilian defense in the South Bay. This film was shown on the social meeting night Thursday in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Redondo Beach.

The members were informed that Rev. Michael J. McNulty, chaplain of the court, had been transferred from Bishop Montgomery High school to temporary assignment in Newhall. This will mean the Court will be without an official chaplain until such time as the Archbishop of Los Angeles can assign a new priest to take over Father McNulty's duties.

Other business conducted at this business meeting concerned the recent district meeting, ways and means projects, as well as the invitation to the Junior Court of Awards.

Mrs. Fred Tamble conducted an auction after the business meeting at which time members were able to bid on packages which were kidnapped from their home after they had left for the meeting.

Mrs. Lee Dimond, chairman of the refreshment committee, was assisted by Mmes. John Gocke, Ralph Gmur, Louis Gundling, Gonzalo Grijalva, Bernard Hoffman and Paul Hogan.
